As a foreword Spike himself describes this book.

Condensed animals was written for those adults and children who do not like rambling poems. If you want a long rambling poem then just read the contents of this book at one go.

Spike Milligan

Unusually, Spike does not illustrate this book himself. The poems do not appear to have been from previous books. A couple do show up in later publications.
