This is not really a book by Spike, he and Jack Hobbs edited the book. There are three contributions by Spike including his poem Myxamatoxis. The cover is his artwork.

The book was produced in support of the Wildlife Youth Service it contains contributions, including drawings, from 92 famous people solicited by Spike and Jack. Another 25 who could not produce a drawing wished it every success.

This was another example of Spike supporting causes he believed in, in a practical way.

The British National Biography lists the Sphere paperback book with the ISBN of the 1973 edition but gives it a publication date of 1977. My copy is definitely published 1973 and has an ISBN 978-0722160800

A 1977 edition with ISBN 978-0722160732 is listed at Amazon and AbeBooks.

Sphere had a habit of giving new printings a new ISBN. This may be an example of this practice.
