

Why did you go Dad?

Bibliography number: C016.1

Author: Spike Milligan

Publication Details: not known

Format: Broadside

Illustrations: unknown

Physical Description: 1pp handmade Milligan Sheepstor paper.

This Poem is included in Norma Farnes' An Intimate Memoir. She says it was written in 1982 and published some years later on his favourite paper which suggests it was a broadsheet from Toni Savage's Press. It is not listed, however, in The Paper Snowstorm.

Look at all those monkeys

Bibliography number: C017.1

Author: Spike Milligan

Publication Details: London Underground

Format: Poster

Illustrations: Spike Milligan

Physical Description: poster

This was the second of Spike Milligan's poems to be displayed on the London Underground as a poster.

The London Underground posters are available for purchase from the Poetry Society (London) and the London Transport Museum. London Underground began displaying poems on posters in London Underground trains in 1986. The posters have also been sent to libraries and schools throughout the UK. Spike Milligan has had two poems published as part of this program.